

MRS. MARION S. MORTON DISAPPEARS FROM HOME

Special to The Morning News

GEORGETOWN, Feb. 4—Delaware State Police today sent teletype messages to all police departments between Georgetown and New York to watch for Mrs. Marion S. Morton, 51 years old, who disappeared from the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. Dolphus Short, 2nd, of Georgetown, with whom she has been living for the past several months. Her home was in Nutley, N. J., and the police believe she may have started there by bus. She had not been in health and it is feared she may have had a nervous breakdown, and is either wandering about or in some hospital. Her disappearance was made more distressing today by the sudden death of the Rev. Francis Burgette Short, her daughter's father-in-law, at Milford today.

Mrs. Morton is about five feet, three inches tall, weighs 95 pounds, has dark brown bobbed hair, hazel green eyes and wore a dark gray mole coat, with a fox collar, a green beret and red sandals. She also wore two large diamond rings.
